DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-10, 12, 14, and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US 4,800,968 (cited by applicant).

US'968 discloses a system that includes an apparatus for use with a top drive 1, comprising: a pivotable mechanism 30 connected to a lower end of the top drive, wherein the pivotable mechanism has a bore therethrough and is pivotable towards and away from the top drive; and a gripping head 10 connected to a lower end of the pivotable mechanism and pivotable by the pivotable mechanism, wherein the gripping head grippingly engages a casing string. With respect to claim 2, the reference discloses an apparatus for picking up a casing string from a rack and moving the casing string toward a center of a well for use with a top drive 1, comprising: a tubular gripping member 10 attached to a structural intermediate 30, wherein the structural intermediate is pivotable from the top drive to move the casing string toward the center of the well. With respect to depending claims 3-5, the reference teaches the limitations as claimed including compensator 27. With respect to claim 6, the reference teaches a method for use in drilling with casing with a top drive 1, comprising: providing a tubular gripping member 10 pivotally connected to the top drive, wherein the tubular gripping member is rotatable relative to the top drive; locating the top drive at a center of a well; pivoting the tubular gripping member away from the center of the well; engaging a casing with the tubular gripping member; and pivoting the tubular gripping member toward the center of the well. With respect to depending claims 7-10, 12, 14, and 15, the reference teaches the method as claimed.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 16-38 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 7/18/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that the US 4,800,968 reference: does not teach, show, or suggest a pivotable mechanism having a bore therethrough, as recited in claim 1; the reference does not teach, show, or suggest a structural intermediate pivotable from the top drive and wherein the tubular gripping member is rotatable by the top drive, as recited in claim 2; and the reference does not teach, show, or suggest a tubular gripping member rotatable relative to the top drive and pivoting the tubular gripping member away from the center of the well, as recited in claim 6.

With respect to claim 1, the reference does show the entire pivotable mechanism 30 having a bore as highlighted in the attached figure 7a, the bore houses element 6, 37, as shown in figures 6-9 of the reference. With respect to claim 2, the reference does suggest that the structural intermediate pivotable from the top drive and wherein the tubular gripping member is rotatable by the top drive (see at least the abstract and figures). With respect to claim 6, the reference does show and teach a tubular gripping member rotatable relative to the top drive and pivoting the tubular gripping member away from the center of the well (see at least the abstract and figure 6).

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
